Dear Friends,

I write this on Friday before Memorial Day. Due to this holiday being on a Monday, the publishing company often asks parishes to send in their final version of the bulletin early so that they can print it in time for us to receive it.

There is no cost to the parish for the printing of this bulletin. We are very indebted to the sponsors located on the last page of this bulletin. If you have never looked at that page, why not look at it today and check out the local sponsors who generously give toward the printing of this bulletin. Perhaps you might even patronize these sponsors over the course of time. Some are obviously easier to patronize than others. One of our parishioners, Steve Malara, is an employee of Liturgical Publications, and solicits for these ads. If anyone would like to take out an ad in support of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, please call the office or the number listed on the bottom of the last page of the bulletin.

Beginning this month, we will highlight an ad on the first weekend of the month. The ad will be listed under this column.

This coming week I will be on retreat with Fr. Jim Callan.

We have taken this first week of June for several years as our time to spend with the Lord and with one another. If you have never made a retreat, I think you would find it advantageous to your spiritual life. Priests are required by canon law to make an annual retreat. A retreat is a retreat from the normal routine of one's life and spent with the Lord in prayer. If you are with other people (as our men are at Notre Dame Retreat House in Canandaigua or our women will be on August 2nd here at SEAS), you have quiet time with the Lord and other time to share with one another or listen to a talk. I believe it is very important to nurturing one spiritual life.

There will be Communion Services at the regular times that Mass would be celebrated. If you have never attended a Communion Service, plan on joining others in the chapel this week. I will return Friday evening.

Peace to all of you,
Father Bill

Do You Use Online Banking Services?

You can contribute to SEAS via Bill Pay! Once you set up the recurring transaction (including your parishioner number), your check will automatically be sent to SEAS (PO Box 149, Hamlin, NY 14464) every week or month. There's no cost to you for postage or paper checks, and you'll never have to remember to bring your checkbook and/or envelope to church, or calculate make-up amounts when you've been away. If you have any questions, please contact the Office or your bank.

Pink and Yellow Envelopes

Have you ever wondered about those pink and yellow collection envelopes? Well, here's the "inside scoop!" Any donations in pink envelopes are deposited to a restricted fund to be used for building maintenance, and any donations in yellow envelopes are deposited into a restricted fund to be used by the Garden Club for landscaping. (If you don't receive envelopes, you can always make a much-appreciated donation to either of these funds by simply marking your check "building maintenance" or "landscaping.")

When you donate a little extra to either fund, you help to keep SEAS running well - and looking beautiful!

Hospital Visits

Remember if you or a family member are admitted to the hospital and wish to be visited by Father, or to receive communion, you need to request that the hospital notify us or you can call the office yourself.
